Railway Philately of South Africa – 1867 to 1910

An Open Class exhibit presenting Railway Philately in South Africa. Postal systems were greatly influenced by the arrival and development of railways and led to the introduction of a uniform postage system. Innovation of railway companies led to services to assist and complement the Postal Service. Railway Departments started to issue its own packet labels, stamps, stationery and cancellers operating Postal Agencies/Offices at Railway stations, Travelling Post Offices and Special Mail Trains that resulted in the efficiency of rail-post services

Exhibitor: Gawie van der Walt
Frames: 5
Highest award: Gold (Nat)
